JAMES RALPH SCALES

We are a community of teachers and learners.
We gather in this place in the hope of becoming a more responsible community of teachers and learners.

In 1903 a cloth-bound book with the picture of a howling wolf on its cover appeared on the campus of Wake Forest College. That first volume of the HOWLER took its name from the traditional means of communication on the campus: a monthly paper tacked to the bark of the HOWLER TREE, once the only outlet for campus news, activities, and gossip. The tree is no longer there, but its tradition is carried on in this 70th Anniversary of the HOWLER.

We come together in the hope of receiving what we are offered
And giving the one thing that only we can give — ourselves
To the community and to each other.
Yet that same self that we so freely give
Is found in tranquility only.
Retreating, each to himself
We find that which we so eagerly seek — ourselves.

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream — and not make dreams your master
If you can think — and not make thoughts your aim
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can walk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings — nor lose your common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And — which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones,
and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of me.

—Genesis 2:23

God created woman. In the act he brought boredom to an end — and also many other things. Woman was the second mistake of God.
—Nietzsche

Women are nothing but machines for producing children.
—Napolean

We were designed to delight, excite and satisfy the male of the species.
—“J”

Woman was taken out of man — not out of his head to rule over him, nor out of his feet, to be trampled under him; but out of his side, to be an equal to him.
—Henry

You've come a long way, baby!

We, a community, gather
To participate in change and ever-increasing knowledge.
We know not what we seek;
What we find we do not always like;
In the search for security we find insecurity.
But by participating we change.

We are a community now,
Filling this place with teachers and learners,
Affirming the arrival of a heritage dealing in truth;
We hope to be a community then,
Manning the world with persons,
Confirming the departure to a future feeling for beauty.
Yet we commit ourselves to be
More than a community now and then.
